module name	orangehrm - login module testing test case id:	TC_BUG_001 tester name:	rajput roshni test case description:	verify the login page validation with invalid/empty input and identify defects prerequisities:	google chrome installed,internet connection available,orangehrm login page opened environment information	windows 10/11,google chrome(latest version),orangehrm demo website scenario id	scenario	test steps	test input	expected result	actual result	status	comments	severity	priority a1	login page	1.open orangehrm 2.leave username and password empty3.click login	empty username and password	the login button should remain or clearly indicate that both field are required	the button is clickable and validation appear only after one clicking	open	validation issue observed.needs developer review and fix	medium	medium a2	password field accepts very long input	1.open the login page 2.type admin as username 3.paste a password with 200-300 characters 4.click login		the application should limit the password length	the password field accepts the long input without informing the user	open	password field accepts excessive input.input validation should be improved	low	low a3	dashboard accessible after logout using the browser back button	1. login ormagehrm2.click logout3.press browser back button 4.try accessing module	valid login	the system should redirect the user to the losin page and prevent access to all protected pages after	the dashboard remains accessible,and the user can continue using the accilications without loosing in a	-	security issue-users should not be able to access protected pages after loosing	low	low a4	generic error shown for all invalid login attempts	1.open orangehrm login 2.invalid username,password 3.click login	enter invalid detail	specific validation/error message should appear	same generic error show	open	-	medium	medium a5	Losin page does not clear the previously entered username after refi	1.Open the OrangeHRM losin page2.Enter a username. for example Admin3.Do not los in.4.Refresh the browser page using F5 or the browser Refresh button.5.Check the Us	enter detail	After refreshing the page, the Username field should be cleared for security and fresh login input.	The previously entered username remains in the Username field after refreshing the page.	open	issue found	low	low